During the General Meeting of Company shareholders on 30.06.2003 it was decided to increase the share capital by the amount of twenty-nine Euros and seventy-one cents (29.71) (i.e. 10,125 drachmas) through an increase of the par (nominal) value of each share from ten thousand (10,000) to ten thousand one (10,001) drachmas, i.e. to twenty-nine Euros and thirty-five cents (29.35), and also to convert the share capital and the share's par (nominal) value from drachmas to Euros. Following the above increase, the Company's share capital amounts to 370,000 Euros (three hundred and seventy thousand Euros), divided into 10,000 shares of a par (nominal) value of 37 Euros each.

An increase of share capital by the amount of 330,000.00 Euros was decided in the resolution passed by the Company's General Meeting on 17.10.2008, through the capitalisation of undistributed profits (years 2004-2007) amounting to 328,010.61 Euros and the payment of 1,989.39 Euros in cash by the shareholders in proportion to each shareholder's share of participation. Convocation of the Board of Directors

1) The Board of Directors must convene at the company's registered address at least once per month, following an invitation by its President. The Board of Directors is convening validly away from its registered address, at a different location, either in Greece or abroad, provided that all the Directors are attending or are being represented in this meeting and that none of them is opposed to carrying out the meeting and to making decisions.

2) The Board of Directors is convoked by its President through an invitation sent to the Directors at least two (2) business days prior to the meeting. The invitation must clearly mention the matters on the agenda, otherwise decisions may only be made if all the Directors are attending or are being represented and none of them is opposed to decisions being made.

3) The convocation of the Board of Directors may be requested by at least two (2) of its members through a request submitted to its President, who must convoke the Board of Directors within ten (10) days of the request's submittal. If the President refuses to convoke the Board of Directors within the above period or if they convoke it after the period has lapsed, the Directors who requested the convocation may themselves convoke the Board of Directors within five (5) days from the expiry of the ten-day period, by sending the relevant invitation to the other Directors. Their request as per the above must also clearly mention the matters which the Board of Directors is to deal with, otherwise such request shall be deemed impermissible.

Article 24

Representation of Directors – Quorum – Majority

- 1) The Board of Directors is in quorum and is convening validly when half of the Directors plus one are present or are being represented, while at least three (3) Directors must be attending in person. Any resulting fraction is not taken into account when calculating the quorum.
- 2) A Director who is unable to perform their duties may only be represented by another Director. Each Director may represent only one non-attending Director. In this case, such Director shall hold two (2) votes.
- 3) The decisions of the Board of Directors are made in absolute majority of Directors who are present and of those being represented, except in the cases of article 5, par. 2 of these Articles of Association.

Article 25

Minutes of the Board of Directors

- 1) Minutes of the discussions and decisions of the Board of Directors are kept in a special book and are signed by the Directors present at the meeting. Any Director in disagreement may request that a summary of their opinion be recorded in the relevant meetings. Copies or excerpts of the Minutes of the Board of Directors are validated by the President or the Vice-President or the Managing Director.
- 2) The Directors are personally responsible only as to the order given to them before the company's legal person and have no personal liability towards any shareholders or third parties regarding the administration and management of the company, except where so stipulated by the Law.
- 3) The civil prosecution of Directors for a violation of the Law or of the Articles of Association or for overstepping the order given to them may only take place following a resolution passed by the General Meeting of shareholders in accordance with the provisions of article 22b of Codified Law 2190/1920.

Article 26

Compensation of Directors

1) Every remuneration on profits provided to the Directors must be taken from the balance of net profits remaining after deducting the contribution for the regular reserve and the amount required for the distribution of the first dividend to shareholders, equal to at least six per cent (6%) of the paid-up share capital and according to the provisions applicable at the time.

2) An amount set annually by a specific resolution of the Regular General Meeting may be paid to each Director for transportation expenses and as remuneration for attendance of each Board meeting or as any other type of remuneration or compensation for any reason. This remuneration or compensation may be reduced by the Court of Law if, in its reasonable discretion, it is exorbitant and the shareholders representing one tenth (1/10) of the share capital have objected to the decision made. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to remuneration due to Directors for the services they provide to the company under a special relationship for the hiring of services, labour or an order and, therefore, no approval by the General Meeting is required for their payment of such remuneration.

3) Any credit (loans, guarantees, etc.) extended by the Company to Directors, to the company's founders, to General Managers or to their spouses or other relatives by blood or marriage, up to and including third-degree relatives, is absolutely prohibited and invalid. Furthermore, any loans by the company to third parties, as well as extending credit to them in any way or offering guarantees in their favour so that they can obtain company shares, are absolutely prohibited and invalid. The prior express permission of the General Meeting is necessary for any other contract between the company and these persons.

Article 27

Prohibition of Competition

1) The company's Managers and the Directors participating in company management may not take, without the permission of the General Meeting by profession on their own behalf or on behalf of third parties, any actions which are included in the objective pursued by the Company or to participate as Managers, Administrators or General Partners in companies pursuing such objectives.

2) Each Director must strictly adhere to the confidentiality obligations with respect to company information, of which they became aware because of their Director status.

3) In case of violation of the above provision, the company may demand compensation pursuant to article 23, paragraphs 2 and 3 of Codified Law 2190/1920.

CHAPTER F

Control

Article 28

Auditors

In order for a resolution to be validly passed by the General Meeting regarding the Annual Accounts (Annual Financial Statements), these must have been previously audited by an Auditing Firm of Certified Auditors in accordance with the legislation applicable at the time.

CHAPTER G

Annual Financial Statements – Profit and Loss Statements

Article 29

Fiscal Year

The fiscal year has a duration of twelve months. It starts on 1 January and ends on 31 December of each year.

As an exception, the first fiscal year shall start upon the lawful incorporation of the Company and shall end on 31 December 1999.

Article 30

Annual Financial Statements

1) At the end of each fiscal year, the accounts are closed and the annual financial statements are drafted by the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of articles 42a, 42b, 42c, 42d, 42e, 43, 43b, 111 and 112 of Codified Law 2190/1920 or, as the case may be, in accordance with articles 134-143 of Codified Law 2190/1920 and with Regulation 1606/2002/EC. The financial statements and the annual report of auditors are submitted to the Regular General Meeting for approval and are accompanied by an explanatory report by the Board of Directors, mentioning all the information set out in article 43a, par. 3, subparagraphs (a) and (b) of Codified Law 2190/1920, as in force.

2) The annual financial statements (Balance Sheet, etc.), except for the addendum with the relevant audit certificate issued by the Certified Auditor, are published at least twenty (20) full days prior to the Meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Law (article 43b, paragraphs 1 and 5 of Codified Law 2190/1920, as in force).

3) In order for the General Meeting to validly approve the company's financial statements, these must have been audited by the company's auditors and specifically validated by:

(a) the President of the Board of Directors or their deputy; (b) the Managing or Executive Director or, in the case where there is no such director or they are the same person as the Director or their deputy, by a Director; and (c) by the Supervisor of the Accounting Division. In case of a disagreement on the legality of the method in which the Financial Statements were drafted, the above persons must report their objections to the General Meeting in writing.

Article 31

Appropriation of Profits

1) Without prejudice to the provisions of article 44a of Codified Law 2190/1920, the appropriation of the company's net profits takes place as follows:

a) Firstly, a percentage is allocated for the formation of the regular reserve as provided by law, i.e. by deducting at least one twentieth ($1/20$) of the net profits. According to the law, this deduction ceases to be compulsory when said reserve reaches an amount equal to at least one third ($1/3$) of corporate capital.

b) Secondly, the amount required for the payment of the first dividend is appropriated, amounting to at least six per cent (6%) of the paid-up share capital, in accordance with article 45 of Codified Law 2190/1920 in conjunction with the provisions of Emergency Law 148/1967 and of Law 876/1979.

c) The General Meeting freely appropriates the remaining profits.

2) The shareholders take part of the net profits after the Annual Accounts (Annual Financial Statements) have been approved by the General Meeting and their amount to be distributed is paid to them within two months of the resolution by the General Meeting which approved the Annual Financial Statements.

CHAPTER H

Dissolution and Liquidation

Article 32

Reasons for Company Dissolution

1) The Company is dissolved:

a) upon expiry of its duration specified in the Articles of Association, save where an extension of duration has previously been decided by the General Meeting; (b) by a resolution passed by the General Meeting; (c) when the Company is declared bankrupt.

2) Accumulation of all the company shares by one person does not constitute grounds for company dissolution.

3) In case the total of company shareholders' funds as defined in the balance sheet model provided in article 42c of Codified Law 2190/1920, as presently in force, becomes less than half (1/2) of the paid-up share capital, the Board of Directors must convoke the General Meeting within a period of six (6) months from the end of the fiscal year, so that the General Meeting will decide on whether the company shall be dissolved or whether another measure shall be taken.

Article 33

Liquidation

1) With the exception of bankruptcy, the company's dissolution is followed by its liquidation. In the case of subparagraph (a) of par. 1 of article 32 herein, the Board of Directors acts as the liquidator until liquidators have been elected by the General Meeting. In the case of subparagraph (b) of the same paragraph of the same article as above, the General Meeting also appoints the liquidators, through the same resolution. The General Meeting shall appoint up to four liquidators who may or may not be shareholders and who shall perform all the duties of the Board of Directors related to the process and purpose of liquidation, as these may have been limited by the General Meeting. The liquidators must comply with the resolutions passed by the General Meeting.

The appointment of liquidators automatically entails the revocation of the powers of Directors.

2) Upon assuming their duties, the liquidators appointed by the General Meeting must take an inventory of company assets and publish a Balance Sheet as at the commencement of liquidation in the Section of Sociétés Anonymes and Limited Liability Companies of the Government Gazette. A copy of said balance sheet must also be submitted to the competent supervisory authority. The liquidators must also settle any pending company business without delay, pursuant to article 49 of Codified Law 2190/1920, as presently in force and they must draft and publish a Balance Sheet every year, pursuant to the provisions of case (ib) of article 7a of Codified Law 2190/1920, as in force.

3) The liquidators have the same obligation at the end of the liquidation.

4) The General Meeting of shareholders reserves all its rights during the liquidation.

5) The liquidators must settle any pending company business without delay, convert the company's assets to cash, pay off its debts and collect its receivables. They may also take new actions provided that these serve the purpose of liquidation and are to the company's benefit.

The liquidators may also dispose of the company's immovable property, the corporate business in its entirety or its sections or individual fixed assets, but only after four (4) months have lapsed since its dissolution. Within the four-month time frame from the company's dissolution, each shareholder or lender may request from the Single-Member Court of First Instance with jurisdiction at the company's registered address, which judges according to articles 739 ff of the Greek Civil Procedure Code, to determine the minimum sale price for the immovable property, sections or parts or the whole of the company. The Court's decision is binding on the liquidators and is not subject to ordinary or extraordinary means of redress.

6) The liquidation Balance Sheets are approved by the General Meeting of shareholders, which also decides on the exemption of liquidators from any liability.

7) The results of the liquidation are submitted to the General Meeting each year, accompanied by a report of the reasons which did not allow the liquidation's completion.

8) The liquidation phase may not exceed a period of five years from its commencement date, at which point the company is deleted from the Register of Limited Companies (Sociétés Anonymes). An express permission by the Minister of Development is required for the liquidation to carry on further than the five-year period. However, the liquidation phase cannot in any case exceed a period of ten years.

CHAPTER I

Article 34

General Provision

The provisions of Codified Law 2190/1920 shall apply to any matters not regulated by these Articles of Association, as said Law has been amended and is in force.
